people at their reorganization meetings.
We find the following notice of him in
the Richmond Republic of Saturday:
Brigadier General Harris, who to
Brigadier General Harris who to Brigadier General Schenck's remarks on this topic were very clearly and forcibly put, and were heartily responded to by the United States, on the 31st of July last. The table is very convenient for

the Richmond Republic of Saturday:
Brigadier Genezal Harris, who is now in command at Fredericksburg and who has given by his administration of affairs as executive officer of that district wide-spread satisfaction, will to-night deliver an address before the Unconditional Union Association of Virginia, at their headquarters, at Schad's Hall, on Broad street, between Sixth and Seventh.

These are the days of all sorts of Total gold-besigns.

These are the days of all sorts of brokerage-all sorts of schemes to make In the columns of the Whig we find the following warning:

we find the following warning:

We deem it proper to put the people of Virginia on their guard against the rapacity of a set of land sharks, who have recently made their appearance, in person or by proxy, in almost every county in the State. We allude to that unselfish and patriotic class of men, who have undertaken the business of procuring pardons for those unfortunate persons, the estimated value of whose property exceeds twenty thousand dollars.

The Richword Ween. The Richmond Times is not at all disconcerted about the many schemes in vogue for conferring suffrage on the Southern negroes. It thinks the work, like charity, will have to begin a great deal nearer the homes of those who advocate it. We quote the following paragraph from an article on the subject:

agraph from an article on the subject:
alt is generally conceded that until the advocates of negro suffrage have secured for the free negroes who reside
in the Northern States all the privileges of citizenship, they will not have the "check" to demand it of the Southern States. The right of suffrage is limited to "white male citizens" by the Constitution of the following Northern, Middle and Western States: Pennsylvania, Ohio. Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, New Jersey, Michigan, Iowa, Wisconsin,
California, Minnesota, Oregon, Kansas,
Delaware, Maryland and West Virgiala.

health is becoming daily more observed and acknowledged.

In the United States it is held to be the most sgreable condiment, and is esteemed for its stonic and invogorating properties, its habitual use enabling the stomach perfectly to digest the food.

This Sauce is suitable for every variety of dish, and the universal demand which its excellence has created, has led to many inflations being offered to the public, under a variety of names, but the genuine may be known by the lames of "LEA & PERRINS" being impressed upon the patent glass stopper of the bottle, as well as upon the labels and wrapper.

impressed upon the patent glass stopper of the bottle, as well as upon the labels and wrapper.

At the BREAKFAST TABLE, it imparts the most exquisile relish and zest to hot or cold meat, grilled fowl, game, broiled kindney, &c., &c.; and cold fish eaten with all, yinegar and Worcestendire Sauce, mixed in equal proportions upon the plate, is both delicious and wholesome.

At the DINNER TABLE, every dish of rosst meat should have one or more table spoonsfuls of this Sauce in the gravy; and for game a moderate quantity, should be mixed with the Sauce, and the bottle placed upon the table for the use of those who require an additional quantity.

For SUPPER, the remarks for the breakfast table will egally apply, with this addition; that with Cheese this Sauce affords a relish that has surprised and delighted many persons who had previously been familiar with its other estimable qualities.
